Dear Roena,

Below is a copy of the Holmes County, Ohio marriage license of one Moses McDonald, whose history I'm tracking. He later removed to Allen County, OH, where as a Justice of the Peace he presided at the marriage of Claren's Great-great grand parents. Moses and his wife migrated to Farmer Twp . about the same time Claren's ancestors did in 1853.

My question to you is that it appears to me that this couple Moses McDonald and Rachel Ranolds (Reynolds) were married in 1835 in Holmes County, Ohio by one Thomas Bayes, Justice of the Peace. Would this Thomas Bayes be related to your family? It's a small world sometimes.

Hope you are doing well. I didn't mean to ignore you Memorial Day, but I had been exposed to Covid and didn't talk to anyone that day, but immediate family and then distancing myself. I didn't get it or at least had no symptoms and didn't think I did. So, after the service I headed home. I probably wouldn't have gone, but the speaker was in son, Nathan's class and I hadn't seen him since 1982.

Take care, stay well, and God bless.

Love,

My question to you is that it appears to me that this couple (Moses McDonald and Rachel Ransdell (Reynolds)) were married in 1855 in Holmes County, Ohio by one Thomas Baves, Justice of the Peace. Would this Thomas Baves be related to your family? It's a small world sometimes.

Hope you are doing well. I didn't mean to ignore you Memorial Day, but I had been exposed to Covid and didn't talk to anyone that day, but immediate family and then distancing myself. Among those from a distance to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carl Smith whose body was brought back from Norwalk for burial, Saturday, June 18, were the husband, and two daughters from Norwalk, Mrs. Edna Chamberlain and three daughters of Cortland, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McConkey of Painesville, I. A. Mavis and Mrs. Vern Marshall and daughter of Amherst, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carr and two children, Miss Carrie Blosser and Miss Hazelle Stuckman, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Mrs. B. J. Smith, Mrs. W. H. Pugh, Miss Nina Martin, Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hollenbaugh of Sturgis, Mich., P. C. Biglow, Jackson, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Biglow, daughter Agnes and son Arle, near Reading, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Hi Webster of Monroeville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Glen Elder, Mrs. Stella Blosser of Hicksville, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Blosser and mother of Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hendricks, Ft. Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Karns of Defiance, and many others. This funeral was held in the Union church at Farmer and conducted by the Reverend L. D. Fauver of Pioneer, who had conducted the funeral of the son Rex, at same place four years ago in April. The singing was done by the same men, O. D. Ensign and son Ward, W. S. Yeagley and son Richard, accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Norway. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful, and Reverend Fauver delivered a fine address. Mrs. Smith was born in Farmer township the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mad Blosser, 45 years ago, and was married to Carl Smith at the age of 18 years. To them were born four daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. Roscoe Hendricks of Ft. Wayne, Mrs. Clarence Davis of Bryan, Laura and Wilda. There are two grand children, the parents and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Lee and Mrs. Victor Kimmell left to miss this mother, daughter sister. The Smiths lived in this community until about a year ago when they removed to Norwalk where Mr. Smith went to the tire business. Mrs. Smith began to lose her health about this time and developed an inward goitre from which she suffered at the time of her death, although death came without a pang of pain, in the night and she quietly slept herself away, Wednesday, June 15 at the Cleveland clinic hospital where she had been taking treatments, preparatory to have the goitre removed in September. Many old friends and neighbors miss this true friend and faithful worker, now that she is gone forever, from us.

MRS. CARL SMITH

Blanche Blosser Smith, oldest daughter of Madison and Clara Blosser, was born Jan. 23, 1882 in Farmer township, where she spent her entire life until a year ago, when with her husband and family she moved to Norwalk, Ohio, where she resided until her death, which occurred June 15, 1927, aged 45 years 4 months and 23 days. She was united in marriage to Carl Smith, Nov. 18, 1900, and to this union were born four daughters, Eunice Hendricks of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Clara Davis, of Bryan, Laura and Wilda at home, also one son Rex Emory who passed away April 25, 1923. Besides a husband and her daughters and their families she leaves to mourn her departure, a father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Laura Lee and Mrs. Mildred Kimmell and their families and a host of other relatives and friends.

Brief services were held at her late home in Norwalk, on Friday, and the following day funeral services were held at the Farmer Union church, Rev. Fauver officiating and burial was in the Farmer cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank all those who rendered assistance in any way during our late bereavement, also those who contributed the many beautiful flowers and those who by words or deeds showed their expression of sympathy.

Carl Smith, 64 Dies Suddenly At Linwood Av. Home

Carl Smith, aged 64, passed away suddenly at his home, 73 South Linwood, at 2:00 a. m. today. He suffered from an attack of influenza early this Spring and had never fully recovered.

He was born in Defiance county Oct. 30, 1878, the son of Lewis and Emeline Rogers Smith. He came to Norwalk about 18 years ago, and entered the automobile accessory and tire business.

Surviving are his wife, Mary Doane Smith, four daughters, Mrs. Eunice Henricks, Kokomo, Ind., Mrs. Clara Davis, of Bryan, Mrs. Laura Smith of New London, Mrs. Wilda Scranton of Hicksville, one step-daughter, Mrs. Hilda Franklin of Norwalk, and one brother, Luther Smith of Farmer, Ohio.

Also surviving are L. D. McConkey and Merle McConkey, nephews with whom Mr. Smith was associated in business here. Ten grandchildren also survive.

One son, Rex Henry Smith, preceded him in death in 1923 at the age of 11 years.

The body is being prepared for burial at the Orebaugh Funeral Service where it will remain until the time of the funeral services.

Services will be held from the Orebaugh chapel Monday morning at ten-thirty and from the Methodist church in Farmer, Ohio at 2:30 p. m. slow time. Rev. Stanley Stall of Norwalk will officiate at the services here and at Farmer, and burial will be made in the Farmer cemetery.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Masonic Blue Lodge.

The death of Mr. Smith removes from the community, one of Norwalk's foremost merchants and a citizen, who enjoyed the respect of all who knew him. Because of the fact it was not generally known that he had been ill, his passing will prove a pronounced shock to his large number of friends.

MORTUARY

SMITH

Ward Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith, was born in Farmer township March 17, 1895, and without a moment's warning was taken from his home and loved ones to join the innumerable hosts of the world beyond on the afternoon of Nov. 6, 1924, at the age of 29 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Feb. 15, 1922, he was united in marriage with Miss Gladys Hasse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hasse of Washington township. To this union was born Richard Dwane who died on Wednesday night as a result of the fatal accident which claimed both father and son. Richard had only been here 6 months and 14 days but that was long enough to win a place in the hearts of all who knew him. Mr. Smith had spent 11 months in service during the World war. He was one of the popular young farmers of Farmer township, his manly conduct and broad minded spirit having won for him many friends.

He leaves his loving wife, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith, one brother, Loren Smith of William Center, two sisters, Mrs. Grace Kelley of Toledo, and Miss Bertha Smith, who is at home with her parents, and many other relatives and friends whose hearts will be saddened for years because of the untimely death of one they loved so well.

To him, Home was not merely four square walls

Though hung with pictures nicely gilded;

Home was where affections called
Filled with the shrines the heart had builded.

That shrine was the love for his young wife and baby son, the latter of whom he had said but a few moments before, "I would not take a million dollars for my boy."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses and favors shown us during our bereavement.

W. S. Mitchell Dies Suddenly On Thursday

Mar. 28, 1963

FARMER — William S. Mitchell, 60, a Farmer Township farmer, died suddenly about 8 a.m. Thursday while doing the morning chores in the barn on his farm. He went to the barn about 7:30 a.m. to do the early chores and when he did not return to the house at 8:30, his wife, Bertha, went to check and found him on the floor of the barn. The family physician said he apparently died of a heart attack.

Mr. Mitchell was born Oct. 26, 1902, near Cisco, Ill., the son of John and Charity (Armsworth) Mitchell, and moved to the Farmer area with his parents at the age of 10 years. He attended the Farmer School, and was graduated in 1921.

He and the former Bertha Smith were married Feb. 19, 1925, and they have lived on their present farm since 1939. He was a member of the Farmer Methodist Church, a member of the board of the Farmer Cemetery Association, an ex-director of the Co-Op Grain Co. of Ney, and a director of the Defiance County Farm Bureau.

Surviving are the widow, Bertha; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Louise Appel of route 1, Ney; a sister, Miss Florence Mitchell; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Farmer Methodist Church with the Rev. J. Hughes Price officiating. Interment will be in the Farmer Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Perkins & Reeb Funeral Home, Hicksville, after 7 p.m. today and until 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

The family suggests that those desiring to give memorials contribute to the Farmer Methodist Church building fund, to the Cancer fund or the Heart fund.

WARD C. SMITH

Ward Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith, was born in Farmer township, March 17, 1895 and without a moment's warning was taken from his home and loved ones to join the innumerable hosts of the world beyond on the afternoon of Nov. 6, 1924 at the age of 29 years, 7 months and 19 days.

On Feb. 15, 1922 he was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Haase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haase of Washington township. To this union was born Richard Duane who died on Wednesday night as a result of the fatal accident which claimed both father and son. Little Richard had only been here 6 months and 14 days but that was long enough to win a place in the hearts of all who knew him.

Mr. Smith was in service eleven months during the World War and was one of the popular young farmers of Farmer township, his manly conduct and broad minded spirit having won for him many friends. To him, Home was not merely four square walls

Though hung with pictures nicely gilded;
Home was where affection called
Filled with the shrines the heart had builded.

That shrine was the love for his young wife and baby son, the latter of whom he had said but a few moments before "I would not take a million dollars for my boy."

He leaves his loving wife, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith, one brother Loren Smith of Williams Center, two sisters, Mrs. Grace Kelly of Toledo and Miss Bertha Smith who is at home with her parents and many other relatives and friends whose hearts will be saddened for years because of the untimely death of one they loved so well.

I take this method of saying to all my friends and neighbors how much I appreciate the help, words of sympathy, floral offerings and everything that has been a help in any way at the time of my great sorrow.

Mrs. Ward Smith.

with her daughter and family,
and Mrs. R. V. Prucha and son.

Joint funeral services were held Sunday for Ward Smith and son Richard, who passed away from injuries received Wednesday evening when their buggy was hit by an auto. This was the largest funeral ever held in Farmer, there being 301 autos parked in town. Those from a distance attending the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. Emery McConkey of Painesville, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McConkey of Niles, Will Fickle and daughter Marie and Frank Bayes, of Sheppard, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Will Hilbert of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bayes and Otho and Estel Bayes of Lansing, Mrs. Emma Gilson and daughter Flossie of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bayes of Reading, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bayes and Miss Martha Bayes of Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernard Kelly of Toledo.

Death Takes Wm. Fickle

Former Village
President, Businessman

Death again took another old timer in Shepherd Monday when William Fickle, 78, died suddenly at the home of his daughter Mrs. William Clevenger.

Mr. Fickle had been in his usual health until taken ill Monday morning and was lying down resting after the doctor, called by his son-in-law when he complained of feeling ill, had gone away. He passed away peacefully in his sleep only a short time afterward.

Wilson in his grocery store later when taken over by J. R. Williams. Mr. Fickle continued his work there until buying the Sunoco station which he operated for many years. He was also much interested in village affairs and served as president of the village for a number of years.

William W. Fickle was born, September 27th, 1875 at Defiance, Ohio to Elias and Eliza Wasnik Fickle and passed away, April 26th, 1954 at the home of his daughter in Shepherd.

He was married to Nora V. Bayes of Hicksville, Ohio on August 3, 1896 and she preceded him in death on February 25, 1949.

Surviving him are one son Hollis Fickle of Middleton, three daughters, Wilma Stilgenbauer of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Marie Willis of Royal Oak and Dorothy Clevenger of Shepherd, also five grand children.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
 our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
 face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
